All applications must be turned in by Thursday, March 15, 2018 to be considered for this award. Please be specific in your responses and provide all necessary supporting documents. The committee reviews all scholarship applications that are completed correctly. Incomplete or late applications will be ineligible to for consideration.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Graduating Grand Haven high school seniors are eligible to apply, if they attended Robinson half or more of their elementary school years.
2. Good GPA, work, and social habits.
3. Two sealed letters of recommendation.
4. Completed application (including typed essays, resume, recommendations, current grades, and transcript).

BACKGROUND

Roadrunners United will award one $500 scholarship per year, which is to be used for expenses normally incurred by full-time postsecondary students including tuition, fees, books, equipment, supplies, room, and board. Payment will be made to your college for fall semester 2018 after confirmation of full-time enrollment. Scholarship selection is competitive. Students who are awarded funds are chosen on the basis of their achievements and their contributions to the community.
